Dear Mr. Hanson,

While conducting standard case file research we noticed that on 2/21/03 you were awarded a judgment of $2850.00 in Rolling Meadows Municipal Court against Glenn Hagele. As a judgment holder, you have the right to assign your judgment to a third party to enforce your judgment. If you have not been able to collect this or other judgments, we are interested in collecting them.

We specialize in locating hidden assets and seizing them to satisfy judgments. Our company's fee is based solely on a percentage of what is actually collected.

There is a time limitation on collecting a judgment. If you do not properly act on your claim, it may expire. Please don't let the hard work you have already put into winning this judgment go to waste.

The out of pocket cost to you is nothing. We will bear all expenses involved in the search for assets and enforcement of the judgment. You will receive a substantial percentage of the total amount of assets found and seized within thirty days of collection.

If you are interested in the enforcement of this judgment, with no cost to you in advance, please contact me at (847) 981-1330 immediately to arrange for assignment and terms. Since your judgment has been nothing more than an IOU for so long, you have nothing to lose by allowing us to collect for you. Don't delay - turn that worthless piece of paper into cash!

Sincerely,

Charles Mckinnon

RE: Hanson vs Hagele; 2003-m3-000136

Dear Mr. Hanson,

I enjoyed speaking with you and appreciate the time you took to discuss your case. I have enclosed three copies (two to sign and return to us and one for your files) of an Acknowledgment of Assignment of Judgment and two copies of an Assignment Agreement (one to sign and return to us and one for your files). Also enclosed is a Judgment Debtor Profile Worksheet, and a return envelope.

Please read the agreements over carefully and fill in or sign all appropriate areas on each page. It is advised that acknowledgments turned in to the court clerk be signed in the presence of a notary. You will find that all banks have one to serve you.

Next, please take a moment to fill in any information on the enclosed Judgment Debtor Profile Worksheet that you can. I understand that you will leave most of the form blank, that is to be expected. However, any information you can provide may be helpful. Feel free to write any additional information you would like us to know about your debtor on the back of the form.

I look forward to working with you on this matter.

Sincerely,

Charles Mckinnon
