DATE: April 3, 2009
TIME: 1:30 p.m.
ROOM: E-326

Defendant Brent Hanson moves the Court to dismiss Plaintiff's Request for Continuance on the basis that the Plaintiff has already been granted multiple continuances, and has failed to avail himself of the opportunity to file a response to the single remaining motion before the court in the previous hearing.

On February 12, 2009 the Court issued rulings on all motions, with the exception of Defendant's Motion to Dismiss for Failure to State a Claim upon Which Relief can be Granted. The Court then granted a continuance in order to allow the Plaintiff additional time to analyze and file a response to the remaining motion. The Plaintiff has now had over six weeks to perform his own research and file a response, using the same method in which he filed a Request for Continuance. The Plaintiff has failed to file a response, even though the Defendant provided original source materials from Nexis Lexis that were referenced in the motion.

In the Plaintiff's Request for Continuance, he states that he is unable to attend the hearing on April 3, and further states that he requires at least 4 weeks advance notice. However, he provides no good reason why he cannot attend this hearing. The Defendant has checked the web site at CheapTickets.com and has found that airlines are offering round trip flights from Sacramento to Seattle on April 2-3, and that these tickets are being sold for less than $300.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, Defendant respectfully requests that the Court deny Plaintiff's Request for Continuance.

This the 30th day of March 2009.

Brent Hanson
